Explanatory Note

(This note is not part of the instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation)

These Regulations, which are made by the Revenue Commissioners under the provisions of section 481 of the Taxes Consolidation Act (TCA) 1997, deal with certain matters arising from various changes to the administration of the film relief provisions, as contained in section 28 Finance Act 2004. The Minister for Finance has recently made the necessary Commencement Order to bring the changes in that section into effect. The changes provide, among other things, that the Revenue Commissioners will consider each application made on or after 1 January 2005 for a certificate in relation to a film but only after the Minister for Arts, Sport and Tourism has issued an authorisation that the film is within certain eligible categories and satisfies certain criteria.

The Regulations include provisions which set out the categories of films eligible for certification and the criteria to be considered by the Minister for Arts, Sport and Tourism when issuing authorisations. The Regulations also deal with the information and documentation required with an application; the provision of records by a qualifying company as evidence in relation to expenditure on a film; the provision of copies of the completed film and of a compliance report in relation to the film.

Finally, the Regulations set out the type of expenditure on the production of a film which may be accepted by the Revenue Commissioners and what qualifies as “eligible goods, services and facilities” (in relation to which a minimum amount of expenditure may be required under the terms of a certificate issued) for the purposes of section 481 TCA 1997.

The Regulations apply to applications for certification made on or after 1 January 2005.
